

LUVS BOAT: FAQ'S

TACO CHILD
Illustration And Design

The Luvs
Boat

(NOT AFFILIATED WITH LUVS DIAPERS)

THE 'LUVS BOAT' BOAT FAQs - 2020 EDITION

FAQ'S

Have questions about the 'Luvs Boat'? Read some of our frequently asked questions, and the answers, here...

WHERE IS THE BOAT LOCATED?

The boat is located in upstate New York. For security reasons, we do not provide additional information on the location, except to invited guests.

IS THERE A COST TO VISIT THE BOAT?

There is no cost for invited guests.

Visitors are encouraged to chip in and/or split food and beverage costs.

Cabin cruiser gas is measured in gallons per hour. Guests are always welcome to put in something to help cover gas.

IS THERE AN AGE LIMIT?

Visitors during official boat weekends must be at least 18 years of age, and may be asked to show ID. There are no exceptions.

Guests under 21 will not be allowed to drink alcohol.

There is no upper age limit, but I do try to curate a guest list that makes everyone comfortable, so there may be weekends with younger ABDLs, weekends with older, mixed weekends, etc.

ARE GIRLS ALLOWED?

The boat is my home. With very few exceptions, most of the guests who have visited have been friends I've made in the community. Most are readers of my blog, which is written from the perspective of a gay male, so most of my visitors have been... wait for it... gay males.

I like to joke that we'd have a woman visit the boat if we knew any. In the future, I'd love to have a 'girls weekend out', so that may be in the plans. Regardless of how testosterone-heavy the photos are, don't hesitate to hit me up if you'd like to come visit the boat.

WHAT IS THE VETTING PROCESS TO VISIT?

I typically try to meet new visitors to the boat in a public place, i.e. coffee, lunch, etc. This allows me to meet you, and you to meet me, to gauge our comfort level with each other in a neutral space. I may make occasional exceptions to this on occasion, especially if you and I have talked for a long time or if you come recommended by other visitors to the boat.

I also often run names of community members I'm considering inviting by those who attend my get-togethers on a regular basis - the 'regulars' - and ask for input before extending an invitation. If you've ghosted or otherwise mistreated one of my friends, there's a good chance you won't be joining us... we try to assemble groups of nice people as much as possible.

You can read more about the vetting process on the official Luvs Boat Rules document.

HOW MANY PEOPLE CAN VISIT AT ONCE?

The boat is a cabin cruiser with a salon and two cabins. The aft cabin has two twin beds - one is set up as a 'crib' of sorts. This room sleeps 2-4 people. The forward cabin is known as the 'cuddle cabin', and sleeps 2-4 comfortably - as long as guests are willing to cuddle. The salon - that's a living room in landlubber speak - is capable of sleeping 1-2, as well. That means the boat can sleep anywhere from 5 to 10 people. That said, we try to limit it to 4-5.

HOW LONG CAN I STAY?

I typically have guests on weekends only, due to my work schedule. A typical weekend sees guests arriving early Saturday morning - admission is free before 10 a.m. - and leave Sunday afternoon or evening. Special arrangements can sometimes be made to have guests arrive late Friday and/or leave early Monday. (On rare occasions I sometimes have had longer weekends and/or week-long visitors).

CAN I CHARTER THE BOAT?

No. Boat charters, and in fact any boat for hire, require a coast guard captain's license, special insurance policies, and more. This boat is both Cwis's summer home and a pleasure craft, and not a boat for hire.

Tyson and I have talked about offering some sort of nautical nursery bed and breakfast down the road. If we do, it will not be here, or on this boat.

Look for the 'Luvs Boat II' coming soon to a southern city with an airport near you!

ARE PHOTOS REQUIRED?

Nobody is ever required to take photos. For those who are comfortable, I welcome the opportunity to photograph ABDLs on the boat.

Nervous? We often use creative angles. Faceless is fine, too. And if you're under 21 years of age, I don't allow face pics.

WHO WILL BE THERE?

I get this question a lot. The short answer is, who knows? 'Boat weekends' are filled with folks who ask to come, RSVP with a 'Yes!', and then flake in the days leading up to the event. (That's the nature of our community, as anyone who's been a part of it for any length of time finds out).

If you are coming because you are hoping to meet someone you saw on our website, you may be disappointed. Contact that person directly instead and meet up somewhere else.

DO YOU ALLOW MESSY?

The #WhyABDL Survey I launched in 2018 revealed 51% of our community have some interest in 'messy' diapers. It's important to remember, though, that many do not.

Consideration of others is key on the boat. During group activities, for obvious reasons, messy diapers aren't allowed. (During individual session messy diapers are only acceptable with Cwis's express permission).

There is a good likelihood you will be required to change your own messy diapers, so be prepared. You will also be asked to dispose of them outside of the marina, to be considerate of others.

Anyone messing in a group setting or leaving messy diapers in public spaces will not be invited back to the boat - no exceptions.

DO I NEED TO BRING MY OWN DIAPERS?

The boat has a full 'stash' consisting of a number of diapers in most sizes, including some nautical ones. Still, we all know that ABDL diapers are expensive... so you're more than welcome to bring your own, or even some to add to the stash.

CAN WE KEEP THE CLOTHES?

We may have onesies, footed sleepers, diapers, and other clothing to loan out. Sorry, you can't keep it. We'll occasionally do 'challenges' where you can win a prize - which may include an article of clothing. But otherwise, it's on the honor system: if you borrowed it from the boat, leave it on the boat, so someone can enjoy it next time. Your honesty is appreciated!

DO YOU WEAR DIAPERS AROUND THE MARINA?

We wear diapers everywhere! Under clothing, of course. Vanillawear is required anywhere we might encounter vanillas, and that especially includes the marina. While we believe, in a perfect world, everyone should be able to wear anything they want - women wear business suits, men wear miniskirts, and adults wear diapers - we don't live in a perfect world.

BUT I'VE SEEN PICTURES OF PEOPLE IN DIAPERS IN THE MARINA?

Believe me when I say, we are not about ageplaying out in public. Pictures you see on the website and/or social media sometimes appear to depict guests rocking diapers in public. Those photos are taken at times when the marina is less crowded - sometimes we are the only people there - and they are taken from angles that make it highly unlikely anyone will lay eyes on diapered guys. We've had a close call or two, but we are very careful, understanding not everyone understands alternative lifestyles.

DO PEOPLE SEE YOU IN DIAPERS OUT ON THE WATER?

Out on the water is a different story. The boat is on a lake with more than 60 square miles of surface area. That is a lot of space, and it's not hard to find a spot on the lake where you won't encounter another boat for hours. Still, guests are encouraged to have a pair of swimming trunks or a towel within arm's reach - we move them out of the way when we take the pictures. We once had the local tour boat come within a hundred feet of us, and I've had neighbors cruise past and wave, but for the most part it's just us out on the water.

Still, with 60+ square miles, you can imagine some freaky shit happens out on the water. When I bought my first boat in 2003 my dock neighbors warned me not to sail up and say hello to one particular boat - they were naturists, and only boated nude once they left the marina. When I bought my current boat neighbors across the canal invited me to a kinky sex party on their luxury yacht. I've been dock neighbors with a pilot who brought a different flight attendant to rock the boat every single week of the summer, and my former dock neighbor's daughter brought her cop boyfriend when her parents were at the boat on the weekends, and her gangster lover some weekdays. If you want to do something different, boats are the perfect place to do it... it doesn't get much more private than out on the water.

I HEARD THERE ARE BOAT RULES?

You can read the 'Luvs Boat' Rules document here in PDF format.

HOW CAN I SUPPORT THE 'LUVS BOAT'?

We appreciate any support the community sees fit to provide, so if you're feeling charitable, we thank you in advance! Here are a few ways you can help:

Donate Through PayPal:

paypal.me/cwis

Donate Through CashApp:

cash.app/whyabdl

Amazon Wish List!

whyabdl.com/wishlist

Any Help Is Appreciated...
whyABDL.org/supporters

cash.app/whyabdl

whyabdl.com/wishlist

paypal.me/cwis

NOTICE:

Due to the COVID-19 virus,
we've temporarily suspended voyages
on the 'Luvs Boat'.

Visit whyABDL.org/boat for updates.

(NOT AFFILIATED WITH LUVS DIAPERS)

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
abysitter@gmail.com